

INTERACTIVE COOKING CLASS & CANNERY ROW WINE TASTING

#6 TOUR

SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 2009

2:30 PM - 5:30 PM

Interactive Cooking Class & Cannery Row Wine Tasting Experience

Taste the flavors of Monterey in this two-hour cooking class taught by Executive Chef Mary Pagan, CEO of the Culinary Center of Monterey and Culinary School of Monterey. Participants will use ingredients indigenous to the area as they cook, eat and quiz the chef while looking out over beautiful Monterey Bay from the Center's state-of-the-art, ocean view kitchens. Then stroll across the street to A Taste of Monterey for a private VIP wine tasting of many Monterey County fine wines along-side an educational Wine Ambassador while they provide expert analysis.

What to expect:            A hands-on affair, interfacing with food and wine experts while having fun, savoring the whole way.

Departing From:        Monterey Marriott on Calle Principal Street

Time:                      2:30 PM

Where To:                Cannery Row – about 3 minutes from the Host Hotels

What to Wear:           Resort casual with a light jacket or sweater, comfortable shoes

What to Bring:         A camera and your taste buds. There will be an opportunity to purchase wines from Taste of Monterey currently presents 175 wines from 75 different wineries.